Excerpt from Wildlife Services Program Highlights, Fiscal Year 2000 WS plays a leadership role in cooperative efforts with the States and agriculture producers across the country to protect farm crops, livestock, and aquaculture and forest resources from damage caused by wildlife. Annual depredation losses to selected agriculture commodities in the United States have been documented by nass. These losses include more than $110 million for corn, blueberries, and sunflower and more than $14 million for farm-raised catfish and trout. Annually, wildlife damage to agriculture in the United States, excluding forest resources, is estimated at between $600 million and billion.
