Springfield Speech June 16, 1858 Speech delivered at Springfield, Illinois, at the close of the Republican State Convention by which Mr. Lincoln had been named as their candidate for United States Senator. [The opening paragraph of this speech was prepared with the most extreme care, and probably did more to influence Lincoln s political future than anything he ever wrote. His best friends thought it impolitic to utter the sentiment that the government cannot endure permanently half slave and half free. For the immediate purpose of that campaign they were right, for this paragraph, in the opinion of many good judges, was the cause of Lincoln s defeat by Douglas. But the constant discussion of those sentences in the great series of joint debates with Douglas during the summer and autumn brought Lincoln s views before the whole country, and was an important...
