About the Book: A little boy who is the son of a poor gardener works on the palace grounds of an unhappy king. This very rich king is unkind as well as uncaring about the lives of his servants and subjects. One day, while walking on the palace grounds, he meets the little boy. The king, due to his selfishness, has never before noticed the boy. He does observe, though, that the boy is poorly dressed but is smiling. He wonders what can make this boy happy enough to smile. The king insists that the boy tell him what makes him happy. The boy finds the courage to lead the unhappy king deep into the forest, where they will meet four friends. The four friends, a bird, an elephant, a monkey, and a rabbit, will share with the king in a colorful way the wisdom that brings happiness. In so doing, she has provided a valuable addition to a body of literature that has withstood the test of time and continues to offer entertainment and meaning to impressionable young minds. -Frank Howard, Director, Amitabha Foundation When a king who has everything is unhappy, what does it take to make him happy? The Four Friends is Donatella Cardillo-Young's retelling of a lovely folk tale from Nepal, with gentle advice for all of us. -Vivian Vande Velde, author, Tales from the...
