Excerpt from The Archaeological Journal, 1884, Vol. 41: Published Under the Direction of the Council of the Royal Archaeological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland At some time between the accession of William Rufus in 1087, and his own decease in the following year, on the representation Of his Lewes monks that the original charter of 1077 founding the Priory had been sent to the mother house of Cluny, and that the prior and convent of Lewes had no title deeds or muniments to produce in evidence of their rights and privileges if any dispute arose consequent upon the unsettled state of the kingdom, earl Warenne drew up a second charter, confirming to the monks of Lewes the grants and gifts he had made eleven years before. It is from this most singularly interesting document that we learn how and under what circumstances the monastery was founded.
