I left brother Mc at Dundee, yesterday afternoon, where he will remain for a time, visiting the towns and villages in that distric, as wisdom may direct, laying before the people the principles of the everlasting G. s pel as lie may find opportunity. We desire to make the most of the summer months in holding forth in tlie open air, where houses cannot be ob tained. Although that street preaching is at a large discount in this Ciiu try at present, for the reason tha almost every principal corner ami public spot is besieged with a c ass of teachers who cry, Lord, Lord, but do not the things which Ho has com manded. And these babbbbs nave an multiplied (from what motive it not for me to saj) that it is difficult for a servant of the living God, sent unto them with the principles of life and salvation as contained in the Gospel of His dear Son to obtain a hearing. Nevertheless we are not discouraged, but expect to bravely battle on, trusting in tlio Lord who giveth the victory. Since my last writing to you, we have baptized some eighteen persons, be aides a number of re baptisms. With love to yourself, and all at 42, I remain your brother in the Gospel, Hamilton G. Park. SWITZERLAND. Berne, June 13, 1876. Prest. A. Carrington. I was pleased to learn from brother Home of your safe arrival, and of that of your...
