

Earthly Politics: Local and Global in Environmental Governance

By Sheila Jasanoff, Marybeth Long Martello, Peter M. Haas, Gene Rochlin

MIT Press Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Earthly Politics: Local and Global in Environmental Governance, Sheila Jasanoff, Marybeth Long Martello, Peter M. Haas, Gene Rochlin, Globalization today is as much a problem for international harmony as it is a necessary condition of living together on our planet. Increasing interconnectedness in ecology, economy, technology, and politics has brought nations and societies into ever closer contact, creating acute demands for cooperation. Earthly Politics argues that in the coming decades global governance will have to accommodate differences even as it obliterates distance, and will have to respect many aspects of the local while developing institutions that transcend localism. This book analyzes a variety of environmental-governance approaches that balance the local and the global in order to encourage new, more flexible frameworks of global governance. On the theoretical level, it draws on insights from the field of science and technology studies to enrich our understanding of environmental-development politics. On the pragmatic level, it discusses the design of institutions and processes to address problems of environmental governance that increasingly refuse to remain within national boundaries. The cases in the book display the crucial relationship between knowledge and power--the links between the ways we understand environmental...
