WESTWARD HO! 161 So in despair I turned into a busy Western town, And hoped to see the gun-fighters a-mowing of men down; But while I loitered on the street to see blood by the flagon, I fell before a green-goods man and then a devil wagon. For Western life ain t wild and woolly now; There is no daily gunpowder powwow; There are bunco games galore And the chauffeur holds the floor -- But Western life ain t wild and woolly now! WESTWARD HO! Heard a horse-wrangler named Singleton sing this on the Delaware, at point of the Guadalupe Mountains. I love not Colorado Where the faro table grows, And down the desperado The rippling Bourbon flows; Nor seek I fair Montana Of bowie-lunging fame; The pistol ring of fair Wyoming I leave to nobler game. Sweet poker haunted Kansas In vain...
