

Trout Boomer: And the Little J (Hardback)

By Bill Anderson

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2014. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Trout Boomer The making of a fly fisher and his love affair with the Little Juniata River In this two part book, a retired executive relates with short, often humorous tales of his boyhood, how he became a fly fisherman and the defender of, the Little Juniata River in Central Pennsylvania. The Trout Boomer, son of a WWII sergeant, brings us back to our youth as he tells of BB guns, hand lines, carp, a rooster named Buster, and early fishing adventures. Readers, especially fellow Boomers, will relate to little Billy as he negotiates his way through a succession of city neighborhoods, trades a Louisville Slugger for his first fly rod and finds fishing in the Brandywine River as his refuge. In part II, Bill shares his intimate knowledge of the history, watershed and fly hatches of the j (Little Juniata). Having had a successful career in industry, he retires to open a fly shop, becomes President of the Little Juniata River Association and dedicates his time fly fishing and defending this wonderful and frequently overlooked eastern wild brown trout...
