

The Magi Process: A Nondual Method for Personal Awakening and the Resolution of Conflict (Paperback)

By Jason Shulman

Foundation for Nonduality, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The MAGI Process-a thirty-eight step, dynamic spiritual methodology for the resolution of conflict and awakening-is a way of participating in the creative machinery of the world. Since, from a nondual perspective, we are part of the world, made by the world and simultaneously making the world, to do the Process is to engage fully with reality. It is to drop into the programming language that made and makes the world as we know it. The thirty- eight Steps of the MAGI Process are the actual answers about what is really here and who we are. They describe the essence of what you will find at every step of the journey when personal desires and questions come into contact with the great, impersonal vastness of Reality. The world is filled with seeds. Dust motes from the skeletons of stars float in the universe, condense and form suns, planets, and new life. The pine cone makes a forest of pines. The apple pip makes an orchard and fruit and a future apple-picking time. Each seed sets in motion a myriad of events,...
