Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Autopsy Quite as distant the march from Man beyond, As Man to insect in the lifeless pond; Xact in degree, as we ascend to Jove, Is our life excelled in the realms above. A happy Wigler but unhappy Man, Who quits the Divine for a mortal plan, Councils, creeds, books in prose and yet in verse. But increase alarm as we view the hearse, Engulp your postulates, cast words to dogs. To Nature s facts give ere, exempt from fogs, Think, reason, independent, bold and free. No power wase e er made to think for thee, You take a seat high o er all living things, You ve duties of Gods, destiny of Kings; Look up, with angels freely to converse Yon hold the key - unlock the universe. Women have secrets, they never betray, Nature more coy, firmly discounts for pay, Bestows no crown on belief in advance, Faith or no faith, she goes on with the dance; Earth s musics inspiring, falls on dull ears, It s spirit of music, swelling the spheres,...
