Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The very first followers of Christ had an amazing experience with the Scriptures. They actually heard the Spirit of God speak to them through the Scripture writings, and God used them to teach them truth, keep them on the right path, train them in righteousness, and equip them for the good work He created them to do. To them, the Bible was living and active and a meaningful part of their spiritual journey. But something happened along the way. Today, the majority of believers never read the Bible outside of a church service, if even then. Many have given up trying to understand the Bible. And sadly, many believers never experience the Spirit of God speaking words of life into their soul as they read the Bible. But it doesn't have to be that way. In fact, that was not God's design for His Scripture. He intended for it to be profitable for the spiritual vitality of believers. For far too many, the Bible is anything but profitable. One of the reasons why so many believers do not have a life changing experience as they read the Bible is that they do not understand that the Bible is really one story, the one story of God's relationship with creation. It is not a collection of disconnected stories. On the contrary, it is one glorious story, a story in which we all play a role. WORD OF GOD SPEAK will help you understand this one story, and help you understand how the individual stories fit into the one story of the Bible. But more importantly, it will help you see how the story of the Bible...
